THIS IS ANNIVERSARY OF JORDAN LODGE

Order Started Thirty-Six Years Ago Now One of Best in State.

Today is the thirty-sixth anniversary of Jordan lodge No. 3, L O. O. F., but, contrary to previous years, no special bservance will be made of the occasion. hast year the lodge had a gala celebration, but, owing to the immense mount of work before the order this cear, it was decided to pass over the year, it was decided to pass over the measure until 1910.

On Nevember 17, 1873, Judge Hayden of Nevada, acting under a discusation granted by the grand size of the sovereign grand lodge, instituted fording budge. This little spark of fractionalism planted thirty six years ago has fanued, until today it is a shaping light and the pride of the order universally, and to its own members in particular.

The lodge bonsts of one of the bes degree teams in the west, and its captain, W. W. King, openly challenges any team in the state for proficiency in captain, W. W. King, openly chainings any team in the state for proficiency in my of the degrees.

At the last regular meeting, Dr. A. Lipkis, William Sorensen, A. N. Algott and M. Golforb were instructed in the mysteries of the degree of friendship, while W. S. Sparks was admitted by transfer of membership. Sixteen applicants are awaiting action for December, and from reports, it is expected that next mouth will see the largest class of neophylos ever on the floor up. 1. O. O.
